

One-Time Payment Consent

The online one-time payment service automatically withdraws a payment from your checking account on a scheduled date. By signing up for our One-Time Payment Service, you authorize us to initiate a withdrawal from the checking account that you specified. Certain rights and obligations with respect to pre-authorized electronic fund transfers are governed by the rules and regulations of your financial institution. Please contact them for additional information.

One-Time Payment Modification Notice

You understand and acknowledge that you may cancel or modify the payment up to, but no later than one (1) business day before the date of your scheduled withdrawal. If you wish to modify this one-time payment, you can do so online via our website or by calling one of our Customer Service representatives.

Non-Sufficient Funds Notice

You understand and agree that adequate funds must be available for withdrawal from your account by the scheduled withdrawal date. If a transaction is rejected for Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF), submission error, or other bank return reasons, we may, at our discretion resubmit the transaction within thirty (30) days. An NSF fee may be assessed for each returned transaction. If you have multiple NSF transactions, we reserve the right to restrict your account to certified funds.
